
Erratum to: "Online Effects of Transcranial Direct Current Stimulation in Real Time on Human Prefrontal and Striatal Metabolites" by Hone-Blanchet et al. (Biol Psychiatry 2016; 80:432-438).

The authors discovered a typographical error in the first author's surname of a cited article. Specifically, for reference 35, the correct spelling of the author's name is Clark, rather than Clarke. This error is present on page 436 in columns 1 and 2, and in reference 35 on page 438. The authors apologize for this error.

The correct citation is as follows:

35. Clark VP, Coffman BA, Trumbo MC, Gasparovic C \(2011\): Transcranial direct current stimulation \(tDCS\) produces localized and specific alterations in neurochemistry: A 1H magnetic resonance spectroscopy study. Neurosci Lett 500:67–71.
