937 Acknowledgments

From the work by Lo Iacono et al. (in this issue, pages 905–916), microglial cells immunostained with ionized calcium-binding adapter molecule 1 (Iba1) and reconstructed by Adobe Illustrator (see Figure 2) are featured on the cover. In this article, the authors demonstrate that sensitization to cocaine in early life—stressed individuals involves brain and peripheral immune responses and that this mechanism is shared by mice and humans. Artwork created by Valeria Carola with assistance from Fabiana Perrone and Maria Teresa Viscomi.
